MUZRAI DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT:—

Change of Bar award of Brindavana puja at Srinivasathudu, T. Narsipur Taluk.

LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 74 dated 2nd September/94 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District.

The Brindavanams at Srinivasathudu* are endowed by Govt with a cash grant of Rs 94-8-0 per annum and an allowance of 2 seers of rice with condiments for each and also allowed for Naivedya.

* Seshachandrachariyaru Srinivasathathachariyaru Vidyavallabhaswamigalu

For the above puja there were four hissedars in the beginning, viz: Venkata ramanachar, Dikshitachar, Kempacharand Hambinarasimhachar, each worshipping the brindavanams and receiving the emoluments attached thereto for 3 months in the year.

Vide Genealogy (No 12)

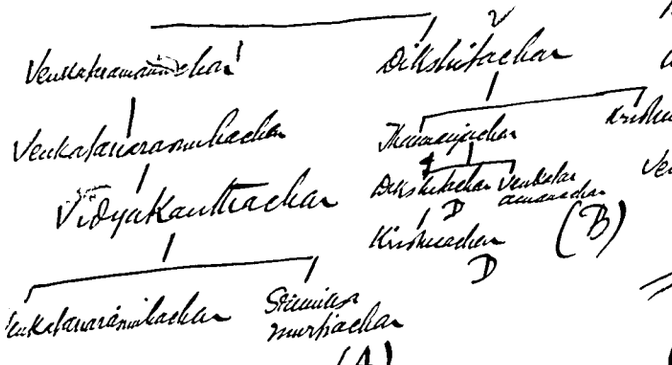
One of the above hissedars named Kempachar died issueless and his share of poruja was apportioned ~~out~~ among the remaining three hissedars and it is why that Vidyakanthachar now alive and other hissedars have poruja for four months in the year.

Nambimarasimhachar above referred to also died without male issues, having transferred his share to his nephew (sister's son) Venkatasubbachar of Ramanathapur. [It will be seen that Venkatasubbachar unconnected with the family got the poruja Baraward transferred to his name and the other hissedars are reported to have petitioned the Taluk authorities in the matter.] This Venkatasubbachar also died issueless and his wife Bhagavamma transferred her share ~~(to which she was not legally entitled)~~ to her husband's brother's name (Dabbamachar). He left a male issue behind him, but before the baraward could be transferred to that child's name, the child itself died. Then the child's mother Kaveramma had the Baraward transferred to her name.

The proper claimants for the poruja therefore are, as stated by the Amildar, Venkatavaradacharya & Dikshitachar as the other two are reported to have died issueless.

The poruja is reported to be in the enjoyment of Kaveramma

Extract from the Genealogy to show the relationship of the present claimants to the original two hissedars.



(i) The present descendants of Venkataramanachar are Vidyakantha Char and his sons having 4 months Jonja

(ii) .... of Dikshitachar are Venkataramanachar (B) and Venkata Narasimhachar, those marked D having died. 4 months Jonja

(iii) Kaveramma (issueless) 4 do

(B) is the brother of Kaveramma.

Kaveramma after her son's death and after the Barawar of the Jonja was transferred to her name petitioned the Deputy Commissioner to have her barawar transferred to her brother's name (B). The Deputy Commissioner accordingly accommodated the transfer and it was handed in this office Rubkari No 739 dated 19.9.03. The objections of the other hissedars were not then before this office.

Srinivasamurthachar (A) petitioned this office appealing against the Rubkari of this office and praying that the baraward may be made in the name of the hissedars.

No 132 d: 25.7.03
" 1327 d: 31.12.03
" 2871 d 18.5.04

The above were sent to the Deputy Commissioner for report. The Deputy Commissioner, in the letter cited above states the facts of the case briefly and submits the records for reference.

This is a matter to be heard and decided by a Committee of Council under Rule 12 (1) (a) of the notification no 36 dated 8th August 1902. The file may accordingly be transferred to the General & Revenue Secretariat. Submitted to the Private Secretary through the 2nd Assistant Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

Yes. It is true that this is practically an appeal against an order of the Government. At the time when this quostion first came up for Orders, there were no claimants or hakdars, and orders were issued by me in accordance with the report of the Deputy Commissioner, as is done in all such simple cases.

In the present case, the party whose appointment has been ordered by this Office may be left undisturbed, and the present claimants directed to bring a regular suit before the Amildar, so that the final appeal may go up before the Council Committee.

Decision

The Brandreth pension was originally sanctioned & was increased by rotation for 3 months each in the year. One of them died in service and his share was enjoyed by the remaining three who attended to the service for four months each. Of these one transferred his link to his (illegible) nephew and on the latter's death his widow succeeded. She in turn transferred her share to her deceased husband's two sisters who also died leaving not have been allowed to be ~~transferred~~ transferred to a different Service as were done in those cases while there were other hundreds engaging the offices and thus eventually perpetuate the mistakes now committed & permitting its perpetuation & it is premature to consider as to who should be the successor to Kanekamma until the office becomes vacant. The petitioners however can have no manner of right to the office at this distance of time. In these circumstances I am of opinion that the existing arrangement should not be disturbed. & the petitioners claim be rejected.

SUBJECT.

Application for review of the order of Government passed in Muzrai Rubkari No 739 dated the 17th September 1903, approving of the transfer of the Baramahal of ⅓rd share in the Brindavana pooja rule at Tirumakudlu in the T. Narsipur Taluk from the name of the late Baramahalkar Ramaiyanna to that of her brother the counter petitioner

The facts of the case appear sufficiently from the following.

Decision

Decision

The Brindavana pooja in question was originally performed by four Kaisadars by rotation for three months each in the year. one of them (Keempachar) died issueless and his share was enjoyed by the remaining three who attended to the Service for four months each. of these, Rambi Narasimmachar transferred his hulk to his Sister's Son, Venkata Subbachar and on the latter's death his widow (Bhagamma) Succeeded. She in her turn transferred her Share to her deceased husband's brother (Venkatanarasimmachar alias Dabbamachar) who also died leaving a Son. The boy did not survive the registry of the office long. His mother Kameeramma (widow of Dabbamachar) next Succeeded to the office. Thus the Services passed into the possession possession of a Vrange family and had been in its enjoyment for more than 20 years. Kaveeramma the last bara wardar sought permission to appoint her brother the counter petitioner to the office though he is already enjoying a share in it as the grandson of Dr Kshetachar one of the four original hissedars. The Deputy Comr in his Rubkari No 18 dated the 4th September 1903 recommended the transfer of bara ward from the name of Kaveeramma to that of the counter petitioner and Govt in their order Muzkoi Rubkari No 739 dated the 17th September 1903 approved of the transfer. The petitioner who is a member of the family of Venkataramanachar first of the original four hissedars mentioned above applies for a review of the above order of Govt praying that the third Share enjoyed by Kaveeramma be distributed between the members of the family of the first two original Pattedars

on further consideration Govt observe that, as hereditary office such as the one in dispute should not have been allowed to be alienated to a different family as was done in this case while there were other Pattedars enjoying the office, and they cannot perpetuate the mistake once committed by permitting its repetition. It is premature to consider as to who should be the Successor to Kaveeramma until the office becomes Vacant
The petitioner however can have no manner of right to the office, at this distance
